Technical Requirements for IREC's Online Services

Pop-ups must be allowed

Google and Yahoo toolbars should be disabled

Adobe Flash Player is required

If you have problems accessing the site, please contact IREC at (208) 334-3285 or (800) 377-3529 or info@IREC.idaho.gov

Renewing Online

Be sure to enable pop-ups before you start the process otherwise, your renewal won't go through.

Also, it is a false statement to say you have completed your CE if it isn't actually done (even if you have time to finish it by the end of your renewal period). A word to the wise ..

Congratulations to Mike Gamblin, IREC's 2008 Excellence in Education Award Recipient!

July 1, 2008 Law Changes

Prelicense courses completed on or before June 30, 2008 will be accepted for five (5) years; prelicense courses completed on or after July 1, 2008 will be accepted for three (3) years.

Agency law is clarified sold prices of property are not considered confidential client information .

New Blue Brochure

The blue agency disclosure brochure has been revised, effective July 1, 2008. The new form will be available on the IAR online forms as well as the IREC website, and IREC will also have a supply of the printed forms available for purchase.

New and Improved Online Services Now Available!

Check out IREC's new online services effective April 24, 2008, you need to register a new IREC user name and password to renew online. All registered licensees can change addresses, print licenses, and view education records, license histories, and E&O insurance status. Designated brokers can also add and remove associates and view the CE and E&O status of licensees in their offices.
