Vol. 28 No. 1

January 2008

Commission Comments

We have lots of new information on law changes, continuing education policies, and website updates to tell you about this time! We would appreciate your assistance to spread the word....

1. Updated Website and Online Services.

New: Same web address, new look and improved function! We are taking over maintenance of the online services for our agency.

2. Continuing Education Credits.

Change: Courses approved by other jurisdictions are no longer automatically accepted for CE. Idaho course providers must certify each course and obtain an Idaho course approval number. If you take a course outside of Idaho, or a course that is offered for CE for a different profession such as attorney or accountant, you may submit the course to IREC for evaluation of possible CE credit. Please see the article on page 7 from our Education Director for more details!

Reminder: Look for the IREC course approval number on all advertisements for CE courses. Double check the IREC website for a current list of certified courses. In many cases, no course approval number = no CE credit for you!

Exception: Courses you take to earn certain professional designations are automatically approved for continuing education. A list of those designations may be found at www.irec.idaho.gov.

Reminder: Keep an eye on your continuing education account online at www.irec.idaho.gov. You need 16 hours of electives plus one Commission core course every renewal period.

3. Changes to Licensing Forms.

New: All new and renewing license applicants must attest to legal presence in the U.S. New applicants must also provide an identification document.

New: Many of our new licensing forms now may be filled in online and all can be downloaded from www.irec.idaho.gov. (Applications submitted on forms dated prior to July 2007 or incomplete applications cannot be accepted and will be returned, which will delay approval of the application.)

Reminder: Due to the heavy volume of inquiries, Commission staff is unable to answer phone calls or e-mails about the status of license applications. If you provide an e-mail address on your documents, we will e-mail you a notice that we received your paperwork.

4. Paper License Certificates No Longer Mandatory.

New: Paper license certificates are not required. IREC will send applicants a post card when an application has been approved. Once the applicant's name appears under the Licensee Search section of the IREC website, it means the license has been approved.

Reminder: If you want a paper license certificate, you can request one from IREC for an additional $15 fee. (If you renew your license online, you can print a license certificate from the website free of charge.)

New: Be watching the website for changes like a new and improved "Licensee Search" and easier access to your education and other IREC records at www.irec.idaho.gov.

5. Fee Changes.

New: The fingerprint and background check fee has been reduced to $29.25.

New: IREC has eliminated the fee for a record change, unless you want a paper license certificate at a cost of $15 each.

6. Real Estate Statement Newsletter.

Due to budget constraints, we are not mailing out a printed newsletter this year. Would you like to receive the newsletter and other updates from the Commission via e-mail? Visit www.irec.idaho.gov to sign up for our new list serv electronic newsletter or to read the Real Estate Statement online.

If you have suggestions on ways we can improve our service, please do not hesitate to let us know.

EDUCATION UPDATE

By Sue McClintock
Former Education Director

Greetings from the Education Department!

Latest News about CE

In an effort to help our Idaho licensees determine whether certain offerings of continuing education credits will be accepted towards their license renewal, the Education department encourages licensees to take the following steps:

- Check to see if the course title appears on the List of Certified Courses on our Education webpage at <http://www.irec.idaho.gov/course-numbers.html> (Note: Courses taken to earn certain professional designations are approved for CE credit; visit the IREC website for a list of these designations.)
- Look for a course approval number -- not an Idaho code/statute number -- on all course advertisements.
- Don't be drawn in by such phrases as "accepted" or "approved" for CE credit in Idaho. Confirm that a course has been certified by checking the Education department webpage or by calling Saunya or Jesama.

Be Proactive!

The Education department urges licensees to be proactive! Review your Education account online. Just click on the "Check your Education Online" link on IREC's homepage at <http://www.irec.idaho.gov>. If you don't remember your user name or password, just click on the link provided.

Avoid a CE Audit

Licensees should be aware that Continuing Education audits are not conducted on a random basis! If you do not have the required 16 continuing education credits plus the Commission CORE course posted on your education account when you renew your license, our licensing and information system will automatically generate a CE audit letter for you.

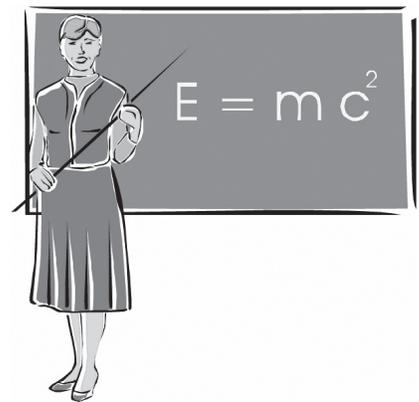

Avoid stress! Always keep your certificates of completion for the courses you have taken in a special file -- in case you are audited. Submit your certificates of completion as you receive them!

Idaho certified providers are required to submit course completion lists to the Commission within five (5) days of the course completion date. By doing so, licensees are assured that their continuing education credits will be posted to their Education accounts.

If you choose to take continuing education courses from an out-of-state provider or a course offered for CE credit by another profession (e.g., accountants or attorneys), you will need to download, complete, and submit an "Individual Request for Continuing Education Credit" form. The Commission does not automatically accept CE credits from other states, including Washington, Oregon, Wyoming, Utah, etc.

Submit an Education Fund Awards Application

Do you have a creative, new idea for an educational opportunity that will benefit Idaho licensees? If so, download our new Education Fund Awards application from the IREC website and send it to us today!

Why wait? Find out how many CE credits you have accumulated so far this renewal period. Visit <http://www.irec.idaho.gov> and click on "Check your Real Estate Education Online." Fax any certificates of completion that do not appear on your Education Account to Jesama at (208) 334-2050.

Bird Dogging!

The Enforcement Department is seeing an increase in the number of licensees attempting to illegally split fees with unlicensed people or enterprises.

Idaho Code Sections 54-2054.(2) and 54-2060.(3) address this issue. Illegal fee splits generally take two basic forms.

First and most basic is where a licensee offers to pay anyone for a successful referral. We have seen post cards, printed advertisements, and internet promotions of this concept. (The slang term for this type of arrangement is “bird dogging”.) Remember this basic rule: You can only share with someone that holds an active real estate license, or is an actual principal to the transaction.

Anyone that procures a buyer or seller for you may actually be in violation of the license law for unlicensed practice of real estate. Procuring buyers or sellers in anticipation of a fee requires a license. How would you feel if someone was trying to do you a favor, and your own promotion got them disciplined by the Real Estate Commission?

The second version of this problem is harder to see. The licensee offers to pay a fee to a charitable institution upon a successful closing. While this may seem like a great idea, it is illegal under the license law. If you fall back on the basic rule you will soon see that your worthy charity does not fit within the mold. They likely do not hold an active real estate license, and are probably not a principal to the transaction. Under the license law this fee split is illegal.

Questions, comments etc., call and ask for Enforcement, at 208-334-3285.

Credit Card Payments

The Commission is now accepting credit card payments over the phone, fax, mail, or internet. If paperwork is required with payment then the Commission can not accept payment by phone. To use fax or mail there is a new form we require to be completed. This form is called Credit Card Payment form and it can be found on our website at www.irec.idaho.gov under "Forms".

Errors & Omissions Insurance

It is a violation of Idaho Code to have an Active license without insurance. When you apply for a license or renew your license you certify you have and will continue to have the proper E&O insurance coverage.

If a licensee is found not to have insurance with an active license they will be subject to fines ranging from $100 up to 5,000 and possible suspension or revocation of their license. The Commission takes E&O insurance seriously and will enforce the laws to the full extent.

Dear Real Estate Professional:

PSI Services, LLC requests your participation in an important study of licensed real estate salespersons and brokers. The primary objective of the study is to update the specifications for the real estate licensing examinations, and to ensure that they reflect what entry-level salespersons and brokers need to know in order to safely serve the public. To accomplish this objective, we need to obtain an accurate description of a real estate licensee's responsibilities.

This job analysis survey was developed by PSI Services, LLC with assistance from an advisory committee of experienced real estate professionals from around the country.

The survey will be administered to real estate regulators, educators and licensees (salespersons and brokers) who are interested in the quality of real estate licensing education. The survey should take approximately 20 to 60 minutes to complete.

In consideration of your time as a participant, there will be a drawing among all respondents to win 1 of 3 Visa gift cards, each carrying a value of $300.

Thank you in advance for your participation. Your prompt attention is appreciated.

Below is a link to the electronic version of the survey. You are being asked to:

1. Type the following web address into your web browser to access the survey (or copy and paste it into your web browser):
<http://www.surveymk.com/psirealestate>
2. Read the survey instructions and complete the survey.

Please complete the survey by February 7, 2008.

Should you have any questions regarding this request, please e-mail PSI at JAS@psionline.com. Thank you for your cooperation and participation.

Sincerely,

PSI Services, LLC
