

GUIDELINES FOR “SUSPENDED” LICENSEES

Idaho’s license laws impose certain duties and consequences upon the salesperson or broker whose license is “suspended” as part of a disciplinary action taken pursuant to the Commission’s “Disciplinary Powers” or “suspended” under the statute’s “Automatic Suspension” provisions. This Guideline is intended to outline those duties and consequences. (This Guideline is not intended to address a situation in which the license has “expired” after the license period has elapsed and the license is not renewed.)

1. A person whose license is suspended is in the same position as an unlicensed person. Such person may not engage in any real estate activity that requires a real estate license, e.g., he or she may not list, sell, buy, or negotiate, or offer to list, sell or buy or negotiate the purchase, sale, option or exchange of real estate.
2. The person whose license is suspended may receive compensation during the suspended period only for acts performed during the period in which the person was properly licensed. For example, if the person negotiated a sale during the licensed period, the person may receive payment for performance of those acts even though the sale closes during the suspended period.
3. If the suspended person is a designated broker, any transaction that is closed during the period of suspension must be finalized by either another broker, an attorney, a title company, or a financial institution.
4. All advertising naming the suspended licensee, including but not limited to signs on office buildings and on “for sale” properties, must be removed. All evidence of the person’s licensure must be removed from public view.
5. If the suspended person is the designated broker, and if no other broker is designated to act for the brokerage company, the office must be closed during the period of suspension, and the licenses of all associated licensees will be made inactive by the Commission. Telephone service should be canceled, or the telephone must be answered by indicating to all callers that the office is closed due to the suspension of the broker’s real estate license.
6. If the suspended person is the designated broker for a licensed business entity, the law grants the entity ten (10) business days to designate a new broker. If no new broker is designated within the statutory period, the license of the entity is terminated, and the licenses of all associated licensees are inactivated by the Commission.

No person shall engage in the business or act in the capacity of real estate broker or real estate salesperson in this state without an active Idaho real estate license therefore. Unless exempted from this chapter, any single act described within the definitions of “real estate broker” or “real estate salesperson” shall be sufficient to constitute “engaging in the business” within the meaning of this chapter. Any person who engages in the business or acts in the capacity of real estate broker or salesperson in this state, with or without an Idaho real estate license, has thereby submitted to the jurisdiction of the state of Idaho and to the administrative jurisdiction of the Idaho Real Estate Commission, and shall be subject to all penalties and remedies available under Idaho law for any violation of this chapter.

(d) Any person who directly or indirectly engages in, directs, or takes any part in the procuring of prospects, or in the negotiating or closing of any transaction which does or is calculated to result in any of the acts above set forth.

(e) A dealer in options as defined in this section.

“Real estate salesperson” or “salesperson” means any person who has qualified and is licensed as a real estate salesperson in Idaho under this chapter, and is licensed under, associated with, and represents a designated broker in the performance of act described in this section.

54-2039. Broker and Branch Office Manager Absences and Changes.

Each real estate brokerage company must have a legally qualified individual acting as designated broker at all times. Each branch office licensed under section 54-2016, Idaho Code, shall have, at all times, a legally qualified individual acting as branch office manager.

Change of broker in business entity. A license issued to a legal business entity, as defined in this chapter, is effective only as long as the individual designated broker’s license is in active status and in effect. If the individual so designated has a license refused, revoked, suspended or otherwise made inactive by the Commission, or if the individual designated broker voluntarily surrenders the individual license or ceases to be connected with the entity in the manner required in this chapter, the business entity shall have ten (10) business days in which to designate another qualified individual as designated broker before the entity’s license is terminated, and the licenses of all associated licensees are made inactive.

54-2054. Compensation, Commission and Fees – Prohibited Conduct.

Court action for fee collection. No person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of real estate broker or salesperson in Idaho shall bring or maintain any action in the courts for the collection of a fee, commission or other compensation for the performance of any acts requiring a real estate license as provided in section 54-2002, Idaho Code, without alleging and proving that such person was an actively licensed broker or salesperson in Idaho at the time the alleged cause of action arose.

Fee-splitting with unlicensed persons prohibited. Unless otherwise allowed by statute or rule, a real estate broker, associate broker or salesperson licensed in the state of Idaho shall not pay any part or share of a commission, fee or compensation received in the licensee's capacity as such in a regulated real estate transaction to any person who is not actively licensed as a real estate broker in Idaho or in another state or jurisdiction. The Idaho broker making the payment to another licensed person is responsible for verifying the active licensed status of the receiving broker. This section shall not prohibit payment of a part or share of a commission, fee or compensation by the broker to legal business entity, all of whose shareholders, members or other persons having a similar ownership interest are active real estate licensees. An Idaho licensee may pay any part or share of a commission, fee or compensation received, directly to the buyer or seller in the real estate transaction. However, no commission, fee or compensation may be split with any party to the transaction in a manner which would directly or indirectly create a double contract, as defined in this chapter or which would otherwise mislead any broker, lender, title company or government agency involved in the transaction regarding the source of funds used to complete the real estate transaction or regarding the financial resources or obligations of the buyer.

54-2059. Disciplinary Powers -- Revocation, Suspension or Other Disciplinary Action.

The Commission may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter, issue a formal reprimand and impose a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), and assess costs and attorney's fees for the cost of any investigation and administrative or other proceedings against any licensee who is found to have violated any section of the Idaho Code, the Commission's administrative rules or any order of the Commission. The executive director may issue informal letters of reprimand to licensees without civil penalty or cost assessment.

54-2060. Grounds for Disciplinary Action.

A person found guilty of misconduct while performing or attempting to perform any act requiring an Idaho real estate broker or salesperson's license, regardless of whether the act was for the person's own account or in his capacity as broker or salesperson, shall be subject to disciplinary action by the Commission. The following acts shall constitute misconduct within the meaning of this section:

- (1) Making fraudulent misrepresentations;
- (2) Engaging in a continued or flagrant course of misrepresentation or making of false promises, whether done personally or through agents or salespersons;
- (3) Failure to account for or remit any property, real or personal, or moneys coming into the person's possession which belong to another;
- (4) Failure to keep adequate records of all property transactions in which the person acts in the capacity of real estate broker or salesperson;

(12) Gross negligence or reckless conduct in a regulated real estate transaction. Conduct is grossly negligent or reckless if, when taken as a whole, it is conduct which substantially fails to meet the generally accepted standard of care in the practice of real estate in Idaho.

54-2061. Additional Grounds for Disciplinary Action -- Court Actions.

The Commission may also take disciplinary action against a licensee including, but not limited to, suspension or revocation of a license, where, in a court of competent jurisdiction, the licensee:

- (a) Has been convicted of a felony, or has been convicted of a misdemeanor involving fraud, misrepresentation, or dishonest or dishonorable dealing or which otherwise demonstrates the licensee's lack of trustworthiness to engage in the real estate business;
- (b) Has been declared to lack capacity or to be incompetent or under an infirmity, for the duration of such declaration only;
- (c) Has a judgment entered against the licensee in a civil action upon grounds of fraud, misrepresentation, deceit or gross negligence with reference to a real estate-related transaction.

The court's record of conviction, order determining legal competency, or the order entering judgment in a civil case, or certified copies thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of a conviction, or the court's action.

The Commission may also take any disciplinary action, including, but not limited to, suspension or revocation of a license where the licensee:

- (a) Has an order or determination of debarment, suspension, or any limitation on participation in government loan programs issued against the licensee for misconduct; or
- (b) Has a real estate or other professional, suspended or revoked for a disciplinary violation involving fraud, misrepresentation, or dishonest or dishonorable dealings. A certified copy of the order of the administrative agency in the other jurisdiction shall be prima facie evidence of the suspension or revocation.

54-2074. Automatic Suspension of Broker's, Associate Broker's or Salesperson's License on Payment by Commission -- Condition For License Reinstatement. If, pursuant to court order, the Commission pays from the recovery fund any amount in settlement of a claim or towards satisfaction of a judgment against a licensed broker, associate broker or salesperson, the license of such broker, associate broker or salesperson shall be automatically suspended without further order of the Commission upon the effective date of any order by the court as set forth herein authorizing payment
